

The Journal paper has undergone a sudden and astonishing conversion to the Liberal party, obviously because it can't stand to see Ray Miller, who is running for the Progressive Conservatives, go to the House of Commons from Edmonton West.

In petty and petulant spite, it changes its thousand political spots overnight because Ray Miller, one of the partners in the ownership of The Edmonton Bulletin, has helped force the Journal to assist in fulfilling the functions of a legitimate newspaper. These functions the Journal has been able to side-step for many years.

For instance, after the war, the Journal made a deal with the old Bulletin to exploit the labor crisis and frustrate the Typographical Union. In addition they devoted maximum space to advertising and minimum space to news coverage and no space to public service.

This ignominious journalistic alliance debauched every duty of proper journalism and became nothing but a double-barrelled cash register.

Ray Miller, who realized the value of a real newspaper, was one of the men who rescued The Bulletin from this journalistic delinquency. And when he helped to establish the Bulletin, devoted to progress and growth at a vigorous pace with which the Journal could not and cannot keep up, Ray Miller promptly became enemy number one in the Journal's deplorable books.

To defeat Ray Miller, the Journal newspaper is willing to desert the political tradition of its owners, the Southams of Montreal, and the political faith of its loyal subscribers, to become an utter turncoat and to stoop to any journalistic slyness to attain its malicious and mischievous ends.

We do not deny the Journal's sudden discovery of the virtues of Liberalism. The Southams have been blindly critical of Liberalism's greatness even during the war years when the government of Mr. Mackenzie King established a record of administration that was the envy of the world.

But we do deny the Journal's assumption of a Liberal mask to stab in the back a great Canadian of great national stature who can do great things for this city.

Everyone acknowledges and notes more so than the Bulletin, a Liberal newspaper, the tremendous services rendered this city by Senator Jim Mackinnon, one of the most beloved Edmontonians, and immediate former member of Edmonton West.

Ray Miller can do as much or even more than Jim Mackinnon did. He can finish those things that Jim Mackinnon was forced to leave undone.

The senator did not stay in office to see the completion of the Macdonald Hotel, Ray Miller will see that the Macdonald extension is built.

Ray Miller is the man who guarantees cheap gas for Edmonton and who has stood for the protection, for Alberta use, of Alberta natural gas by fighting against irresponsible exportation.

He is the man who is unequivocally behind the Yellowhead Route which means so much for Edmonton.

But Ray Miller has stepped upon the Journal's little crown jewels. He has embarrassed the Journal by helping The Bulletin to set a new and vigorous standard of journalism which have taken the Journal's asthma: "to breathe away."

And so, to throttle the campaign of this great Canadian and great Edmonton citizen, the Journal's management will go to the contemtable lengths of throwing overboard all its traditions and assuming, for purposes of political assassination, a fictitious loyalty to a great party which can only be afforded by the pretended allegiance of such an infamous poseur.

Self-Defence Claimed By Accused Murderer

Stabbing victim James W. Holmes habitually threw his own knife at the man who is charged with his murder.

Burke, testifying in Supreme Court this morning in his own defence, said that he had seen Holmes "on many occasions" throw his knife at the man who is charged with his murder.

Under questioning of defence counsel Frank Dunn, the 42-year-old advertising salesman told court Holmes had beaten him "pretty badly" on at least two occasions in the past.

Accused says he had been beaten up by Holmes in 1937 and again in 1940.

"What happened in 1937?" counsel asked.

"It was during a drinking party. Mr. Holmes put a headlock on me, threw me to the floor and beat me about the head."

"Did you and Holmes have any argument at that time?"

"Not that I can recall."

BROKE BURKE'S NOSE

Burke was asked to tell about the fight in 1940.

"I had been drinking," he testified. "I came home and went into the kitchen where Holmes and his wife (Burke's sister) were arguing."

"I said something to Jim... he had been drinking. He knocked me down. When I regained my feet, he knocked me down a second time."

"He broke my nose."

Burke testified there were many other occasions when Holmes had attacked him.

EX-PRO BOXER

He swore that Holmes was intoxicated in wrestling and at one time had been a professional boxer.

"He was rated as a very good lightweight," he told court.

Trial was held up more than 45 minutes this morning over question of whether Burke had been drinking.

Burke to show his crippled right leg to jury.

Before the sun had set on the first day the elated couple phoned. The Bulletin office to cancel their ad. "We've found one already," they cried.

"You too can benefit through this easy medium. Any ad received before 11 a.m. will be placed in the afternoon paper as well as Saturday ad will be accepted up until 10 a.m."

Trustee Has Final Word Over Shorts

WINNIPEG, Man., June 15.—(BUP)—Fred Parsons today planned to resign from the Charleswood school board following a dispute over girls wearing slacks to school.

Trustee Parsons said a girl should be allowed to wear a halter and shorts to school in summer if that was more comfortable.

"I am not for this old fashioned way of being prim and proper."

"I have worn shorts to church," Parsons said. "Shame on you," an elector cried.

"I was in the army," Parsons replied.

Bright-eyed Douglas Latta is the envy of all the kids over at Highland school.

He's the only boy in the neighborhood with a baby robin for a pet.

Week ago the 10-year-old, who lives at 11348 66 street, found fledgling with foot caught in wire fence, leg broken. Little fellow was taken into Latta home, nursed back to health by Douglas and his mother.

Robin is now chipper as ever and manages to maneuver handily in case of his crippled foot.

WORM MUGGY

Doug feeds his pet hamster and worms which he digs in the garden. Robin follows chirping hungrily when little master goes worm-hunting.

Robin now spends most of the day in the garden tearing to fly but makes little whenever he gets the chance.

Douglas feels a little funny on the side as he watches his pet stretch on his wings. He knows that soon he will fly away and not come back.

But he hopes little friend will stay around in the neighborhood and thinks perhaps he will return each year in the spring.

But who's going to teach him to dig his own worms?

HE COULD BE DRUNK

The burning of the bill, while an unusual incident, furnished an excellent example of the law which is a common inference that the defendant had knowledge that it was counterfeit.

"It is far more reasonable, no to think in later that the defendant's act was the by-product of too much liquor."

Thus the court arrived at a conviction and six month sentence imposed on Morris Litzberg, 31, a New York City resident, for possessing counterfeit money.

The appeals court said Judge L. Sullivan evidently relied largely on the bill-burning testimony in his decision. That got another blow and away to within 20 feet of the man, but could go no further for fear they would catch the fire.

George Ingram, 24, stepped from a police boat and was told and Ericson to safety.

EVEN DOGS RESCUED

Two men, a girl and the dog were rescued from a houseboat seconds before the frail craft collapsed in flames.

Trucks belonging to one flame-averse industrial plant were driven to safety by the firemen. The plant was battered down the gate with the first truck and drove others back to the factory lot.

Admits Shooting

Chicago Shooter

CHICAGO, June 15.—(AP)—Eddie Waitkus, 29, Philadelphia Phillies' star first baseman, was shot and severely wounded early today in the hotel room of a 18-year-old girl.

The girl, tall and dark-haired, was identified by police as Ruth Ann Steinhaug of Chicago after she earlier had given a fictitious name and Boston address. Police Capt. John T. Warren said in a statement she admitted shooting the ball player after he accepted her invitation to come to her room at the Edgewater Beach hotel.

In her statement to police, Miss Steinhaug said she greeted Waitkus on arrival at her room on the 12th floor of the skyscraper hotel along Lake Michigan by saying: "I have a surprise for you."

UNCONSCIOUS 2 HOURS

Then, police said she told them she went to a closet, got a .22 caliber rifle and shot Waitkus. He was shot under the heart and did not regain consciousness at the Illinois Masonic Hospital for more than two hours. Three stitches were in the side of his chest to close the entry wound. But it was reported his condition was "critical."

Wide Areas

By The Associated Press

A mid-June heat wave and drought today threatened crops and fanned fears of serious forest fires in the northeastern part of the United States.

In the Pacific Northwest, the New England heat belt mounted to 15 in the last three days, the flash floods and storms in north Texas took the lives of 31 persons.

Fire hazards are reported in the forests of northwestern Washington and northern Idaho as well as in the Cascade Mountains and the coastal forests of Washington.

But over much of the middle west, showers and thunderstorms have brought needed moisture to farmers, brightening an already green every-where.

In Ontario, widely scattered thunderstorms were forecast today to bring a much needed relief to southern Ontario's dry farms and pasture lands. But heavy rain was not in order.

Farmers say the rain has not yet been heavy enough to cure results of the last night drought. The dominion Bureau of Statistics is suffering the worst drought on record and crops were damaged by wide areas in temperature.

Industrial Section Levelled by Blaze

VANCOUVER, June 15.—(CP)—A four-alarm $1,000,000 fire early today levelled more than two blocks of waterfront property in the False Creek industrial district.

Thirteen persons were injured, including 10 firemen, and many others escaped scorching flames by minutes. Four of the injured are in hospital. The others were released after treatment.

A 43-mile-an-hour gale whipped the flames. They travelled a distance of a city block in five or six minutes.

SECOND FIRE AVERTED

A second fire in the highly-industrialized coal harbor area, two miles to the west, was narrowly averted when a blazing fishboat fuel storage tank under dry heat.

Like a torch, the fishboat, 30-foot Roebuck, drifted down the harbor, threatened the fish fleet, and palatial cruisers and power boats at the Royal Vancouver Yacht club off Stanley Park.

Finally, the blazing boat was beached. The cause of the fire is unknown.

The False Creek fire is believed to have started in the Bates Sash & Cord Co. building, a four-story building, but the cause was not immediately determined. Fire and police are searching for a cause.

Police and firemen rescued many persons from a houseboat fire.

Police said a force fire in a houseboat near the waterfront.

The flames raged high above the water.

CREWS AUGMENTED

At least 30 Alberta fire fighters have been rushed to the eastern front of the False Creek fire, about 100 miles northwest of Vancouver, near the Saskatchewan boundary.

They will aid fire fighters sent from the town of Lac la Poudre, Alberta, authorities have applied two bulldozers to be used in fighting the fire, burning over more than 1,000 acres of old burn and old ash.

About 20 men were added to crews today to combat new blazes south of the town of Lac la Poudre, 125 miles northwest of Edmonton, near the Saskatchewan boundary.

They will aid fire fighters sent from the town of Lac la Poudre, Alberta, authorities have applied two bulldozers to be used in fighting the fire, burning over more than 1,000 acres of old burn and old ash.

OUT OF CONTROL

Still out of control, these fires are now burning in the west of Edmonton, today, forestry officials said.

In the trail-bush country northwest of Wainwright, near Invermay and Meekway lakes, fire fighting reinforcements will be required at least two more days before they reach areas of the blazes.

IMPROVEMENT SEEN

Two fires in area were reported earlier this week, one reported by RCMP planes, but so far only four forest rangers have been able to reach the fires.

Fire situation is improved at Carleton Place, 97 miles west of Edmonton, and at Breton, northwest of Wainwright, both blazes have been brought under control.

Fires are still burning at Grande Prairie and in Lesser Slave Lake area.

CHICAGO, June 15.—(AP)—The bodies of 24 U.S. soldiers killed in a wartime ship explosion were today for the largest group burial in the city in 10 years.

They died in the explosion of a transport ship which was loaded with war material at Grand Island, Jan. 29, 1945.

Firemen Pull Terrified Victims to Safety

VANCOUVER, June 15.—(CP)—While tongues of flame licked at their ankles and heat sizzled the water around their boats firemen plunged into the $1,000,000 False Creek blaze today to haul terrified victims to safety.

Many of the half-dressed burned and smoke-blackened men, women and children were pulled from the water by the firemen.

Police adding the fire-fighters were rescued from a houseboat seconds before the frail craft collapsed in flames.

Aerial Survey Combats Prairies' Soil Erosion

A three-year aerial survey by federal department of agriculture has succeeded in combating soil erosion in the three prairie provinces.

Farmers now have protection against bad crops. Aerial photographs, taken on a scale of 1:200 feet in the inch, reveal what sections of land can be used for raising crops.

When a survey shows a man can possibly raise good crops on a bad plot of land he is given another quarter-section where he has proved the ground fertile.

Leigh Brimble, president of Arctic Airlines Ltd., says his company has three planes contracted by the federal government in co-operation for the huge aerial photography project.

Arctic Airlines has just completed an aerial photo of Edmonton for city engineers.

"Federal government in co-operation with the city," said Mr. Brimble, "when they find a man living on a bad plot of ground they move him and reseed the area with buffalo grass."

Re-seeding of the ground prevents soil erosion, protecting it from strong winds which tend to reduce the earth to dust and sand.

Present operations are being conducted from Regina, Saskatchewan and Edmonton, all planes making a wide sweep over the areas and turning in reports to headquarters in Ottawa.

From the photographs, agricultural department can tell by shading of the soil if the land is worth farming.

"It has already paid big dividends," said Mr. Brimble, "in an aerial survey today. 'In the States, caused by the middle-west, famine caused by soil erosion extends into millions of dollars."

CHINA EXAMPLE

China, he pointed out, is the best example of what happens when a country is allowed to disintegrate through soil erosion. Famine and floods always follow mass soil erosion. Prairies would feel the same results if steps weren't taken now to prevent erosion.

"Operation Krokodil" is started each year after snow and flood waters have disappeared and continues into late fall.

In self-defense, said the battered little man, he and his good wife, at one to disarm her, "and she's a small baby to take a club away from."

The magistrate then read a list of Anderson's previous convictions which included drunkenness, assault, theft, breaking and entering, larceny and violation of probation laws, since 1936, and half a dozen other convictions previous to the present case.

'Old Vicious Cycle' Back, Says Manning

By Canadian Press Staff Writer

Canadians, says the Social Credit party, are in the midst of a "new old vicious cycle." That's the cycle which produced the "social and economic chaos" of the depression.

That election campaign view came last night from Vincent Manning of Alberta, only province with a Social Credit government. He delivered a broadcast address from Edmonton as the campaign for the June 27 general election moved toward the stretch drive.

ST. LAURENT BACK
In the east, Prime Minister St. Laurent stepped back on the sidelines with Margraves and made a speech-making tour of Montreal, Quebec, George Dewar, Progressive Conservative leader, spoke in industrial Hamilton while M. J. Colwell, CCF leader, campaigned the west coast.

Mr. Manning said Canada's present economic position is "a certain and inevitable result of the national monetary policies advanced and supported by Liberals and Conservatives alike." As for the CCF, he is playing up "the fallacy that state ownership can insure the complete and equitable distribution of all production."

LIBERALS NOT SOCIALIST
Mr. St. Laurent replied to Progressive Conservative criticism of the Liberal party and said the Liberals are "not socialists, but they are minded." The Liberal party stands for personal freedom and private enterprise and is opposed to any form of government seeking to control the economy under state control.

At the same time, they are equally opposed to "reactionary Toryism."

Only explanation for "retrograde and reactionary" statements of the Progressive Conservative party is that it has no "positive, definite and different" platform of its own.

DREW HECKLED HEAVILY
Mr. Drew, running into the heat of the hotting of his five-year term, Canada tour, struck out at Hamilton at Communists and the CCF and promised that the government under his leadership would give the courts power to deal with "Communist traitors to Canada."

"In this election," he said, "we are not only fighting for the right of responsible government, but we are also fighting for the right to the political meetings without hoodlums interrupting them."

The Progressive Conservative party does not want a regimented state where everyone is told what they may do.

Defence Minister Claxton, in an address broadcast from Montreal, charged the Progressive Conservative party with using "base appeals" in their Quebec campaign and said it indicates "how desperate they are."

Mr. St. Laurent is a "great leader" and heads a "great" cabinet team.

700 Support Gardiner's Nomination

MELVILLE, Sask. June 15.—(CP)—It must be some kind of a record. When agriculture minister Gardiner's nomination papers were filed here for the federal election they were signed by 700 persons.

It was the largest number of nomination and seconds ever to send the doughy Liberal veteran of 25 years in public life into the race for office.

Mr. Gardiner whose majority in the 1945 election was only 28, is opposed by W. J. Arthurs (CCF) and T. W. Driver (PC).

Communists Unfulfilled New Chinese Flag

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—(AP)—The Chinese Communist party has satisfied a new flag—a red one—a broadcast from the Communist radio at Peking said yesterday.

The broadcast said a golden star is set in the upper left corner on a red field. Below the star is the Chinese characters are the words "August First." That is the date of the Communist uprising at Nan-chang, in South China, in 1927.

John Cabot's Ship To Grace Dollar

OTTAWA, June 15.—(CP)—John Cabot's 1497 ship will sail on silver waves if the design for the new dollar to commemorate Newfoundland's entry into confederation is approved by the government.

Royal Canadian mint craftsmen, it was learned yesterday, have completed a design for the coin which depicts the sailing ship on one side and the profile of the King on the other.

HANDLESS VET FINDS HE HAS MANY FRIENDS

CHICAGO, June 15.—(UP)—Laverne Borko, 30-year-old handless veteran, suddenly found he had a lot of friends he had never met before. Borko got a GI loan for a home, but the terms specified he had to have a co-signer. He was painted. He didn't have money for paint or labor. Twenty fellow veterans, most of them unknown to him, heard of his plight and they swung into action with paint and brushes by a room after noon.

"The Walking Hills" is an outdoor drama that is said to be the best of its kind in theme and characterizations. Story revolves around a group of border characters from every walk of life who set out in search of a legendary golden treasure supposed to have been lost 100 years ago in the shifting and shifting sand dunes of the "Walking Hills."

Characters include a cutthroat, a conman, a newspaper and copywriter, a gambler, a doctor, a treasure hunter and a woman who is loved by two of the gold seekers. Advance reports indicate that the film is a masterpiece of the desert drama.

FILM HIGHLIGHTS
Highlights of "The Walking Hills" are said to include a savage fight between two of the gold seekers, slashing action sequences involving Scott, blues singing of Josh White and a terrific desert storm in a blinding climax.

John Sturgess directed from a story and screenplay by Alan Le May, with additional dialogue by Virginia Boddick. Harry Joe Brown produced "The Walking Hills" for Columbia Pictures.

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas
HOLLYWOOD.—(AP)—Why does a Hollywood star make her home in New York?

This question was put to Gene Tierney, who has chosen to live in the east and remain here only to make movies. Her answer:

"My husband's business is in the east (he's Deshaun Oleg Cassini). But there's another reason—the discrimination against movie stars in Hollywood."

"Everybody from the butcher to the hairdresser tries to get his share of a star's earnings. Hollywood is the worst place in the world for this. It's a carry-over from the days when stars were able to keep the salaries they made."

"But today, by the time the tax collector gets through with the salary, there's little left for the mass of people who expect double or triple the price from a star."

Beat Socialized Health Voluntarily, CMA Urged

By Erwin Fricke
SASKATOON, June 15.—(CP)—Dr. William Magner of Toronto, president of the Canadian Medical Association, today proposed a six-point program for expansion of voluntary health insurance plans as a substitute for the "colossal gamble" of socialized medicine in Canada.

In a volitional address prepared for delivery to 1,000 Canadian doctors attending CMA's 86th annual meeting here, the retiring president of the association said the majority of Canadian doctors oppose compulsory health insurance because they fear that under it they will be unable to "deliver the goods."

"They fear... that state control will lead to deterioration in the quality of medical care with disastrous effects upon the people," he said.

FEAR FOR DIGNITY
They also fear, for themselves, loss of dignity and independence, and economic insecurity.

"The problem of provision of adequate medical care for people in low and middle-income groups can be solved by proper reorganization and expansion of voluntary health insurance plans which now are operating... in every province in Canada," Dr. Magner said.

One of the points under his plan for expanding voluntary health schemes calls for the government of Canada to subsidize medical care of those "on the thin edge of things."

$3,000 CEILING
Other five points are:

1. Coordination of various provincial voluntary plans.
2. Plans to extend protection to individuals as well as groups, in rural as well as urban populations.
3. Plans to accept as subscribers only those whose net income is below $3,000 a year.
4. Doctors, both specialists and general practitioners, to attend all subscribers for minimum fees set by the division of the CMA in the province in which they reside.
5. Federal government to permit subscribers to reduce their taxable income by the amount they pay in premiums.

OUTMOOD SYSTEM
Dr. Magner said that while Canadian doctors are opposed to compulsory health insurance, "we have

GREED BRINGS COUGAR'S DEATH

DALLAS, Ore., June 15.—A six-foot mountain lion killed a milk goat on a farm near here. The goat was so tasty the cougar couldn't quit stuffing it. It ate to the point of stupor and went to sleep. Does came and the big cat was barely able, sluggishly, to climb a tree. There the farmer, Albert Cook, killed it with ease. He collected $50 bounty.

British Lumber Order Doesn't Fill B.C. Hopes

VANCOUVER, June 15.—(CP)—The United Kingdom will purchase 75,000,000 board feet of lumber from British Columbia, it was reported here yesterday.

The report here said the order had been placed in London, the second in 1949, for shipment during July to September.

Price details were not announced, but it was estimated the purchase would run between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000.

ORDER SAID SMALL
Spokesmen for the industry expressed "disappointment at smallness of the order and price."

"The prices are materially below those in last year's contract, but we are pleased to know that B.C. will be shipping to its traditional British market," a spokesman said.

The new order will be financed with European AID funds.

The earlier order called for the delivery of 100,000,000 board feet to be shipped during the first half of

ST. ANDREWS-BY-THE-SEA, N.B., June 15.—(CP)—All private or public agencies with the resources and the desire to provide television service in Canada should be allowed to do so immediately, Stewart Finlayson of Montreal yesterday told the Canadian Association of Broadcasters in annual meeting here.

North Chamber Ks Gas Pipeline

Dawson Creek Members Back
Natural Gas Export to Coast

SPECIAL TO THE BULLETIN
DAWSON CREEK, B.C., June 15.—Resolutions endorsing construction of a natural gas pipeline from northern Alberta and B.C. to the west coast have been passed by the Dawson Creek Chamber of Commerce.

Plans for the project were introduced to a meeting of the Chamber yesterday by George McElahan of the West Coast Transmission Co. of Calgary.

The line will run from northern Alberta and northern British Columbia to Vancouver and thence southward across the International Line to the cities of United States northwest.

READY TO GO AHEAD

He said that as matters now stand, the company is ready to proceed as soon as franchise has been granted by the Alberta government and that efforts will be made to develop a greater gas reserve in the immediate area around Dawson Creek and on the Alberta side of the line in the vicinity.

Since the Dining Commission made its recommendations to the Alberta government on the reserves of 43 trillion cubic feet then reported by experts as depleted, he said, a greater supply has been indicated by new developments in the northern part of Alberta, perhaps doubling the reserve supply.

He emphasized opinion of the government of the province as a valuable natural resource should first be devoted to development and advantage of the great west province area recognized as the largest empire for prosperous settlement left on an American continent.

HAS OWN SUPPLY

It was also pointed out that the natural gas supply upon which the company's plans are based would be drawn from an area not called upon to serve the southern part of Alberta, including Edmonton, Calgary and other towns of that section.

An incentive would thus be provided for continuation of the search for oil now under way in the northern part of both provinces, he said.

If a market for gas is not provided, the probability must be faced of serious curtailment or even abandonment of that search in which a very large amount of capital is now being expended, Mr. McElahan charged.

Resolutions were adopted endorsing the project and providing for presentation to the government of both provinces at the proper time appropriate communications on the subject.

GAVEL PRESENTED

Mr. Gordon Butland, president of the Chamber and manager of the local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce was presented with a gavel in recognition of his outstanding service to the community in public work. He is leaving shortly for a similar position in Kamloops.

Among those present at the meeting were Senator Gray Tupper and Mr. George Murray, Liberal candidate for parliament from the Carleton Place riding, who spoke later at a Liberal political rally.

B.C. Electors Voting Today

VICTORIA, B.C., June 15.—(CP)—The British Columbia electorate today decides whether a coalition Liberal and Progressive Conservative forces will return to power or whether the CCF will form a government for the first time in the province's history.

No other party including the Social Credit group of 16 candidates, has fielded enough candidates to form a government.

WEATHER FINE
In weather generally "excellent" over the province, voting started at 8 a.m. The decision is expected to be known shortly after polls close at 8 p.m.

That decision may throw light on how the federal election battle is shaping up for June 27.

Victory claims have been made from both main camps, the coalitionists predicting that Premier Byron Johnson will have additions to the 36 members directed in the last legislature, Harold Winch, CCF leader, has said that the opposition force of 11 members he led at dissolution last spring will swell to a majority. One labor candidate completed the 48-member house.

UNIQUE SITUATION
It has been a unique situation for coalition candidates who have campaigned alongside the federalist forces for whom no coalition is in force. It has helped keep issues strictly provincial.

Coalitionists have said that the fusion was believed necessary for B.C. at a time when looming expansion of the province might suffer from socialist theories of the CCF.

Farmer Injured By Roto-Tiller

CALGARY, June 15.—(CP)—Elmer Beebe of Calgary is in hospital in serious condition today after he became entangled in a roto-tiller he was cleaning.

With the motor of the tiller running, Beebe last night leaned over to clean off the tines with one hand. One of the tines caught his other hand, pulling his arm into the cylinder of the machine. One eye entered his body below the ribs, puncturing his abdomen.

Michel's Body Found In Swamp Near Home

EASTMAN, Que., June 15.—(CP)—The emaciated body of little Michel Pontane was found yesterday in a swamp nearly two miles from his father's farmhouse home.

Provincial police came upon the body partly buried in damp spongy ground thick with tall reeds and bulrushes.

The discovery came two weeks and one day after the six-year-old youngster disappeared when sent home from a pasture by his brothers on the evening of May 30.

NO POUL PLAY
Police said there was no indication of foul play and that Michel appeared to have died from exhaustion and exposure.

There was also a belief that the boy may have died the very night he wandered into thick bush land on the farm, set in the mountain backwoods some four miles from Eastman village.

The place where the body was found borders on long pond, a strip of water about half a mile long and 200 yards wide.

To reach the pond the boy apparently was walking away from the house. He must have passed through pasture land and crossed a small bridge before entering a small bush.

After another clearing he apparently entered thicker and denser bushes.

CRUES RECALLED
It was recalled that on the night Michel disappeared, May 30, Gerald Hobbs of Manos heard what he thought was a child's cry.

Hobbs and a niece were in a cottage on the far side of the pond. Hobbs commented at the time that some persons possibly were out fishing and should take their youngsters home.

It was considered possible that little Michel saw the light in the Hobbs cottage and attempted to skirt the pond, finally sinking in the bog.

Super Salesmanship!

During the war when goods were in short supply, little salesmanship was required to sell our agricultural products.

Yet, by selling under world prices, the Liberal government has cost the Canadian farmer an estimated two billion dollars!

At a time when they should have been looking to the future and making long-term contracts for our food products, the Liberal government were contracting with the United Kingdom, our best customer, for only one and two year periods.

What has been the Result?

We have lost most of our markets! Britain has contracts with other countries, many of them behind the Iron Curtain, for periods up to ten years. Excluding the wheat contract, we have only three contracts in effect at the present time!

FOR THE FARMER'S PROTECTION

- The Progressive Conservative Party Will:
- Restore the Canadian Wheat Board Act to its original purpose . . . a marketing agency for wheat producers
  - Extend the Wheat Board's powers to include handling of coarse grains on a voluntary basis
  - Take aggressive and immediate action to regain lost markets and develop new ones
  - Include Representatives from all farmer's organizations on all Boards dealing with agricultural products
  - Achieve security of export markets through foresighted negotiations
  - Enact legislation based on the principle of democratic producer control.

Bold Clarence Melbye To Try Tame Cubs Tonight

Clarence Melbye doesn't scare easy, as they say in the best of dog days. So he nudged enthusiastic agreement last night in the Eskimo dressing quarters at Renfrew Park when manager Ralph Morgan nominated him to pitch against the Cubs when the teams do a relay tonight.

Of course before Morgan picked on the Oregon school-master he made certain of two things: (a) that Melbye, though married, is not a family man in the strict sense of the word, and (b) that his insurance is in good shape.

And Morgan was duty bound to check up on the Melbye situation after what had happened only minutes earlier on the diamond in what was billed as the first of a crucial two-game series.

McLaws Hot Favorite To Win Title

They were to operate particularly in the Edmonton and District Tennis championships this year, Gordon McLaws would be the man to watch.

And likewise he would be a shoo-in to outclass the field in any other event which he cared to enter.

McLaws is the best the Alberta tennis set contains today.

In 1947 and 1948 he represented Calgary's Glencoe club to the extent of winning provincial singles championships this year.

And while attending the University of Alberta he ranked second to Saskatchewan's Don Rogers in private instruction.

He is currently living in Edmonton and smashing his ballrains during on behalf of the hustling Civil Service club.

McLaws gives Civil Service a wide berth in the city since its membership also includes prominent city stars like Dr. H. J. Richardson, Johnny St. George, Doherty, Mike Wolfe and Sophie Mihal.

South the district championships commence Saturday at Glencoe McLaws will be among 100-odd competitors vying for 1949 laurels.

And right now Edmonton's net experts have tabbed him as the man most likely to wrest the men's singles crown from defending champion Eric St. Charles.

SPARKS FROM THE ANVIL

In a story on the Edmonton Post and Wrestling Commission on this page yesterday it was pointed out that Charlie Croft did not attend a meeting of that astute body Monday.

Subsequent to the meeting, it was learned that Mr. Croft was there large as life. However, he wasn't because of the rapid manner in which the press was whisked out of the meeting.

It was hard to know who was there when you didn't get a chance to see.

Why is it Ted Allard and the Maple Leaf Athletic Club haven't come up with that "headline man" statement which they listed about last week?

NEW YORK, June 15—(CP)—Brooklyn Dodgers had the tables turned on the Cardinals for the first time last night when St. Louis Cardinals got away the second major league triple play of the season in their home park.

Dodgers, who made a triple April 20 against Boston Braves, won the game 5-2 to retain their first place in the contest of a crucial series between the two clubs. It was the Bums eighth triumph in a row.

In the second inning, Mike McCormick bunting one in the infield and Carl Pardo bunting safely, Jackie Robinson scored. Revere and McClellan, but not the bungs, the next batter, lined to Marty Marion.

Marion flipped the ball to Red Schoendienst, catching Pardo off second and Schoendienst tossed to Jones, tripping Robinson off first.

Preacher Ron went the route for Brooklyn, scattering 14 Cardinals hits.

If these amazing Philadelphia Phils maintain the present pace they should be top contenders for the surprise of the year honors. Throughout all the turmoil in the National League, with teams receding up and down in the standings, manager Eddie Sawyer has kept his team Edin' fairly consistently along in fourth place.

Along for the ride, fourth place and the Phils, the upper reaches of the standings.

With veteran Andy Seminick slugging out his 12th homer of the season the Phils sped to a 2-1 victory over the Cardinals.

Cubs hit their fourth homer in three games and hit their ninth in the last 14.

The loss was an inauspicious debut as manager Frankie Frisch, who took over the Cubs yesterday from Harry Grimm.

REG CLARKSON

... in "picnic" mood

Right through the Cub hitting order the canoodling went on as everyone coming up with at least one hit. Edwards' Rager, who went 14 in the plate, was the third in the line with 10 runs, notched five home in the seventh as 10 runners fled for home when he was getting his lumps by this time.

At one stage the score read 22-2, so loped were the exchanges between the two teams.

As Morgan put it afterwards: "The base-hits were screaming past my head like a train and I couldn't do a thing about it." It didn't help a bit, either, when Ed Morris sunbathed all he needed was a ladder.

Near the close Morrie Hawkey, who went the route for the victors, appeared to be in trouble and Koks, in turn, shot him up a little through the seventh, eighth and ninth innings.

As a matter of fact Koks boasted "I hit the finish line, including Morrie's inside-the-park home run, the night before last, so you might say I'm a little bit of a champion."

As a result of drawing Koks so convincingly, Cubs moved two games ahead of Montreal's and Calgary Puytys, deadlocked in the second place.

Reid leftfielder Bill Kealey, Eaks, and Slim Givinski, shared defensive time in the ninth. Kealey robbed Don O'Connor of a hit with a great running catch in the seventh to square matters for teammate Bill Georgette, victim of Clowin's home run.

Eaks introduced first-sacker Ted Tappe to Renfrew, who was the Seattle colleague showed up in the field ball in the bag line. It hasn't been played at Renfrew for a long time. As well he banged around with the force of a pair of hammers.

Sunday Is Big Day For Man of the House

By Bea Thrift
Father's the dear old man who foots the bills. Father's the dear old man who gets nothing but ties he wouldn't wear to a dog fight, socks too loud or too small, white linen handkerchiefs by the bushel and striped shirts with too-short sleeves... every birthday, every Christmas... and yes... every Father's Day too.
Well! This year things are going to be different.

We're going to set this tired old man to work on a list of potential pleasures for the lord and master... the keeper of the home... the man who refuses to eat leftover tea-time dainties for his evening meal.

WHY GROW OLD

Miladay's Hat And Veil Should Match

By Josephine Lowman
Many women write asking about veils—what kind to wear for certain shape faces, etc. Here are a few rules.

1. Remember, in the first place, your hat and veil should match. In other words, a heavy veil when used with dainty flowers on a hat, is not attractive.

2. It used to be considered poor taste to wear a veil in the evening, but this seems to have changed since many attractive evening veils of hats do have veils.

3. If you are fat or short do NOT wear a heavy mesh veil. The mesh kind is best for you. A heavy veil will make you look more rounded down and OUT.

4. If you have a large nose, do NOT wear a veil which ends just under the nose. This emphasizes your problem. Use one which comes at least to the mouth, or under the chin.

5. If your face is wide, use a veil which gives height on top, not at the sides of your face. On the other hand, if your face is long and thin the long hanging kind of veil will be becoming.

6. Be careful about using veils if you wear glasses all the time. By glasses, earrings, a necklace and a cap, you can make you look like a Christmas tree, all decorated.

Veils, like every other self-ornamentation should suit the hat, the occasion and the woman. A little experimentation in this matter will help you decide in greater attractiveness.

Also be sure to keep your veils well pressed. No matter how well groomed you are, a crumpled veil can make you look dowdy.

If you use eyeglasses and would like to have some helpful hints about makeup, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 36 "Looking Straight and Pretty". Address: Josephine Lowman, in care of this newspaper.

YOUR BABY AND MINE Appetite Slackens During Second Year

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred
The small child, busy running hither and yon all of his waking hours, does not have an appetite which keeps pace with his activities.

Up to about nine months of age he may be a voracious eater. Then the appetite slackens and by the time he is two, or thereabouts, he can eat only about half as much as he did the first year.

This is all a part of nature's plan. Whereas the baby during his first 14 months from birth to one year, the gain from 12 to 24 months is seldom over six pounds.

Mrs. F. J. feels sure that her 2-year-old child is not getting enough to eat. "At some meals he just picks at his food and eats not more than a teaspoonful of each food that is served. At others he will clean up all I put on his plate."

Also it seems to me that his appetite for the different foods is extremely variable. There are weeks when I cannot get him to eat a spoonful of cereal. It is the same with vegetables. Then when he gets over this distaste he eats both of them in large quantities. Is this normal of all children?"

Since it is apparent from what you say that inevitably the child balances his own diet by eating these foods in abundance, after the periods of refusal, it would seem better to allow him that privilege.

Some children balance their diets by the day eating all of one kind of food at a meal and then refusing it at all other meals. One of our very small friends eats only vegetables at noon and will have none of them at any other meal.

The mother who keeps the general food pattern in mind and knows which foods are proteins, which carbohydrates and which minerals and fats, will be able to determine whether her child's whole diet, through the day, the weeks and the months, is a balanced one.

As for the amounts of these foods the child eats, they will vary, so long as the child stays well and keeps gaining normally, there should be no cause to worry even if the amounts seem low.

Our leaflet No. 38, "Diet from Two to Two Years," may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

BRIDGE Cagey Play Makes This Double Bid

By William E. McConkey
Many old-timers in bridge will recall playing "Twenty Questions" at the home of the late P. H. St. John in 1921. I was one of the crowd.

It is heard on 425 stations across the nation every Saturday night, except on the Pacific Coast where it is broadcast on Sunday nights. The "Twenty Questions" has been given up its newsworthy. He still broadcasts news daily over a New York station.

After moving from Detroit to New York, the Van Deventer family often discussed the possibilities of this program. One night at dinner, daughter Nancy said, "Dad, why not 'Animal, Vegetable, Mineral'?" It took a long time to get the program under way, but today, when Bill Slater introduces Florence Hargard, that is Mrs. Van Deventer, Bobby McConkey, the youngest on the program, is Bobby Van Deventer.

I asked Van Deventer if there was any luck in coming up with the right answer to "Twenty Questions." He said, "Certainly, just the

After moving from Detroit to New York, the Van Deventer family often discussed the possibilities of this program. One night at dinner, daughter Nancy said, "Dad, why not 'Animal, Vegetable, Mineral'?" It took a long time to get the program under way, but today, when Bill Slater introduces Florence Hargard, that is Mrs. Van Deventer, Bobby McConkey, the youngest on the program, is Bobby Van Deventer.

I asked Van Deventer if there was any luck in coming up with the right answer to "Twenty Questions." He said, "Certainly, just the

Annie Ekrol Chooses Satin Bridal Gown

VETERAN, June 14—St. Olaf's Lutheran Church was the scene of the recent wedding of Annie Jennie Ekrol and Dr. Torstein Olav Walhovd. The Rev. Raymond Olsen of Armenia performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ekrol and the bridegroom the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Walhovd.

Gladioli and lilies backed the altar of the church for the occasion.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a dress of white satin fashioned with a sheer yoke, lily point sleeves and buttons down the back of the bodice.

A coronet of seed pearls held her veil to her head and she carried a bouquet of red roses and lily-of-the-valley.

A dress of yellow moire tulle was chosen by Handi Ekrol of Calgary and a dress of mauve moire tulle by Eva Bye of Hadselton who attended the bride as bridesmaid.

Sophie Ekrol as flower girl was frocked in a dress of green tulle and she carried a basket of summer flowers.

Dr. Toriel Walhovd of Creston, B.C. was his brother's best man. Mrs. Raymond Olsen played the wedding music and during the signing of the register Handi Ekrol sang "O Promise Me."

Mr. Ekrol wore a black crepe dress with a corsage of roses and carnations while Mrs. Walhovd chose a black crepe dress complemented with a corsage of carnations and roses.

Reception for 135 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. Four-leaf wedding cake completed the bride's table. E. Lougheed proposed the toast to the bride and Louis Ekrol to the bride's parents on the occasion of their 26th wedding anniversary.

For a honeymoon trip to Calgary, Banff and Jasper the bride traveled in a navy blue gazarline suit with a white hat trimmed with navy blue. She chose a corsage of roses and lily-of-the-valley. Dr. and Mrs. Walhovd will reside in Edmonton.

Buckham chose a grey crepe dress with grey lace bodice and front drape. Her grey straw hat was trimmed with pink and white flowers and she completed her costume with pink gloves and a corsage of pink roses.

Navy blue crepe dress was worn by Mrs. MacLeod, mother of the bridegroom. Her hat of navy blue mohair was trimmed with daisies and she wore a corsage of pink roses.

Drawing room of the Macdonald hotel was the scene of the reception following the ceremony.

DOUBLE-RING wedding ceremony was recently held in All Saints' Cathedral when Marie Duval became the bride of Kenneth A. Van Meer. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Duval and the bridegroom the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Van Meer.

Attendants' Pastel Gowns Blend With Bridal White

In contrast to the traditional white of the bride's ensemble, frocks of green, yellow and mauve were worn by bridal attendants of Madeleine Jewel McCallister when she pledged vows with Arthur James Smith Saturday afternoon at McQuigall United Church.

Father of the bridegroom, Rev. G. Smith, assisted by Rev. Wesley Hambridge, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with peonies, anemones, gladioli and fern.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. McCallister of Mayerthorpe, the bride was given in marriage by her brother, Norman McCallister.

Her white satin gown featured a yoke of lace, the fitted bodice terminating in scallops over a full skirt. Her train-length veil of embroidered net fell from a bandeau of orange blossoms.

Miss Alison Yule was maid of honor while bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Moore and Miss Alice Thompson. Their gowns of net over brocade satin were styled with scalloped bodices similar to the bride's and puffed sleeves.

Miss Buckham Weds Clifford MacLeod Here

In an afternoon ceremony at St. Luke's Anglican Church, marriage vows were exchanged between Winnifred Buckham and Clifford Bruce MacLeod.

Canon A. Wallis officiated before an altar banked with pink and white gladioli. It was a double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Buckham and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. MacLeod, all of Edmonton.

White satin gown, simply styled on princess lines, was chosen by the bride, who was given in marriage by her father. The bodice featured lily-point sleeves and a high neckline, and the skirt fell gracefully into a train.

CARRIED GARDENIAS
The bride's train-length veil was caught to beaded head band, and she carried an all-white bouquet of gardenias, carnations and baby mums.

Miss Patricia Kavanagh attended the bride as maid of honor, wearing a turquoise tulle gown with a net yoke, a bustle bow catching the full skirt.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs.

Jungle Swallowing Millions in Scrap

Salvage of U.S. War Stores In South Pacific Complicated

By Leslie Brodie

LORENGAU, Manus Island, June 15.—(CP)—The jungle is gradually beating efforts to salvage millions of dollars worth of equipment left on Pacific islands by the United States during the war.

On this island alone there is salvageable equipment with an estimated value of $75,000,000 to $100,000,000 slowly being swallowed up by the creeping jungle.

The works and housing division of the Australian government has been working overtime in a race with the jungle, but unless they are prepared to spend years cutting it back they will lose millions.

YANKS FORCED OUT
It was from Manus, the largest island in the Admiralty group, 200 miles south of the equator, the Americans started their offensive that heralded the end of the war in the Pacific. At one stage they had full battle equipment and stores for a huge fleet and about 500,000 men on the island.

After the war the Australian government refused to allow the Americans to maintain a base on the island on the grounds that it encroached upon Australian sovereignty. The Americans then had to pack up their equipment and move to the U.S.

SOLD RIGHTS
Before they left they sold salvage rights to all movable stores and equipment in the Admiralty group. The purchase was made by the American government for $100,000,000.

WORTH A FORTUNE
In scrap alone Manus is worth a fortune. Jeeps, trucks and heavy earth-moving equipment were built around here and then stacked high by cranes. When the cranes were abandoned to the sea, the trucks were abandoned to the sea.

United States steel companies are interested in buying scrap rights to the island. The U.S. government refused to sell some of it. It did find its way to the Chinese for $30 a ton. It was re-bought for double that price by the U.S.

'CAT' WITH 2 WINGS IS SHOT IN SWEDEN

LONDON, June 15.—(Reuters)—A "cat" with two well-developed wings and feathers on its legs has been shot near Sundsvall, north Sweden, the Stockholm radio said last night.

The body of the freak animal, 15 inches long, is being studied by zoologists.

The "cat" was said to have been seen by a number of people who reported that when moving it spread its wings and had a rocking gait.

The wings emerged from the hind quarters, which were also covered with feathers, while fur on the body was described as a "graying" color.

Eerie Arctic Sojourn Faces Mountie, Body

OTTAWA, June 15.—(CP)—A strange party made up of an RCMP constable, a 15-year-old Eskimo and the stranded body of an Eskimo woman is now inside the Arctic Circle, awaiting the summer break-up, it was learned today.

The mountie, Constable D. Macdonald, was last seen in the vicinity of Spence Bay, about 70 miles due north of Churchill, Man.

New Stettler Test Planned

By Don Flach

A test of the area north of Gulf's Stettler find is to be made by a team of Alberta independents, Enjay Petroleum Limited and South Brazeau Petroleum Limited. The well, Enjay-South Brazeau No. 1, is located on bed 5-20-42-21-47 of a Crown lease held by Enjay with South Brazeau providing half of the backing. The area is about 30 miles north of the Stettler discovery.

Another independent, newly formed Fortoff Oil Corporation Limited has studded its first well near Chisholm, nearly 100 miles northwest of Edmonton. The well is located on lot 5-20-42-21-47, about six miles east of the town. To be known as Fortoff-Roxana Chisholm No. 1, the well is on a Crown reservation held by Roxana Oil.

London Stocks

LONDON, June 15.—(Reuters)—

Sovereign's gold mining shares

stumped on the London Stock change today.

Other sections of the market experienced a very quiet day. Business was insufficient to test price levels and a certain amount of price changes in industrial were few but showed an occasional har-dency in the leaders.

British government medium-

dated stocks moved fractionally higher on small demand but movements in the oil section showed declines on the day. These latter were the result of some offering in a market devoid of support but were generally steady.
